Clarification of News Report

We reply to your request for clarification on the news article entitled "Billionaire Andrew Tan says Megaworld ready to proceed with casino project in Boracay" posted in abs-cbn.com on September 1, 2021. The article reported in part that:

"MANILA (UPDATE) - Billionaire Andrew Tan said his company Megaworld is ready to proceed with a casino project in Boracay following President Rodrigo Duterte's announcement that gambling will be allowed on the famous resort island.

Philippine Amusement and Gaming Corporation Chair Andrea Domingo earlier confirmed to media that Duterte had given the go signal for two casino projects in Boracay Island, by Megaworld and Macau-based Galaxy Entertainment Group.

Tan said they are ready to push forward with Boracay Newcoast, a casino project which was previously shelved due to a casino ban on the island ordered by Duterte.

'We will proceed with our casino project in Boracay Newcoast. We already have several hotels there and we are still building more,' Tan said in a statement.

The project 'will adhere to all government environmental policies,' Megaworld said in a separate statement, as it 'remains committed to the protection of the environment in the island.'

We clarify that the statement of Dr. Andrew L. Tan was for Alliance Global Group (AGI), and not for Megaworld as reported. Dr. Tan confirmed that AGI is proceeding with its planned casino project inside the Boracay Newcoast development of Global Estate Resorts, Inc. (GERI). No other details were given with regard to the proposed casino.

Here's Dr. Andrew L. Tan's complete statement:

"We will proceed with our casino project in Boracay Newcoast. We already have several hotels there and we are still building more. There is also a golf course, the only one in the entire Boracay Island. We are very hopeful that the tourism industry in this island will recover fast after the pandemic."
